SATURDAY, APRIL 18, 1863.

THE ENGLISH MAILS.

The Libertad, yesterday, brought the Southampton mails of March 9th. The Mercey being laid up for cleaning at Rio Janeiro, the Aypa, a Brazilian steamer conveyed the letters & ys, en charge of Mr. Hughes, an officer of the Mercey's service. We have been gravely disappointed at the non-arrival of our 800 supplements which we ordered at considerable expence; they will come in the Mercey on next Wednesday.

The news is very important, as will be seen by our extracts from the London papers. England bustles with enthusiastic loyalty, on the happy occasion of the Prince of Wales' marriage, which promises to eclipse all pageants of the last 20 years. The Brazilian question has created a sensation feeling in St. Stephen's that even at Rio Janeiro, and the Ministry would probably have "gone out", but that the Opposition wished not to mar the national festivities of the day. Lancashire distress has greatly abated, and large numbers of the operatives have emigrated to the Colonies. Sympathy for Poland is become general, and handsome subscriptions pour in for the victims of Russian barbarity. The Galway packet subsidy was before the House of Lord, on March 6th, and the Post master general declared the Government would listen favorably to any proposals for an Irish trans atlantic mail Co.

In France rumors are current of intervention in favor of Poland; Father Felix pronounced a splendid discourse in presence of all the leading notabilities of Paris, to promote a subscription for the countrymen of Langiewicz, whose brother is en route for England to seek assistance for the Poles. The dates from Mexico shew no advanced operations. It is said that General Forey who is an old bachelor, has fallen desperately in love with a young Mexican nymph, who prevents the French conqueror more effectually than 100,000 bearded veterans. Forey demands 40,000 troops in reinforcement.

The Polish rebellion thrives apace, having the blessing of God and man: Sweden has pronounced in favor of the insurgents. Garibaldi's son has set out for the Vistula.

The resignation of Antonelli, who has directed the Papal Cabinet, through many stormy crises, since 1848, is very surprising, and may indicate a change of policy. The Pope is about to pronounce anallocution calling on all Christians to pray for their suffering brethren in Poland.

Marshal O'Donnell seems with satisfaction that all his competitors have failed to form a ministry in St. Ildefonso's where he ruled so many years with such signal success.

Greece is worse than before Otho's fall. Athens is in open revolt: guards patrol the streets, and a conspiracy to restore the Bavarian monarch has been discovered. The Ionians have been prevented holding meetings for annexation with Greece.

A telegram fat Rome, dated Saturday last, announces the resignation of the Cardinal Secretary of State, Antonelli. The Pope had however, not come to any resolution on the subject. The same day, suddenly set on the part of the Cardinal is stated to have been the arrest of one of his most intimate friends, and many other civil subordinates, against whom an extraordinary charge of complicity in the plots of anti-Papal conspirators had been made. It is stated that the arrests were made at the instigation of Mgr. de Merode, the Cardinal's old antagonist, and that the latter has so far undermined the influence of Antonelli as to render it probable that the Pope will accept the resignation. The news has created much sensation, and the result will be awaited with anxiety.

The Monitour of yesterday publishes the words which passed between the Emperor and the new Spanish ambassador. Sor. Isturiz. They are very compl mentary on both sides, the Emperor especially expressing his friendly feelings towards the Queen of Spain and her Government.

The Ministerial crisis continues in Madrid, the difficulty of forming a Ministry being apparently great. Marshal Narvaez appear to have made a new attempt, and to have once more failed. The Madrid very Court Journal of Madrid announced yesterday that the Marquis of Miraflores has been summoned to try his hand at forming a Ministry, with General Concha as Minister of War. It was hoped that a complete list of Ministers would be made out during the course of the day.

The news from Poland is, as usual, full of contradictions. According to the accounts received from Lemberg (capital Polish) Langiewicz has been receiving fresh reinforcements and is in a capital position to follow up the triumphs he has already achieved. On the other hand, the Russians are at present everything in the most charming "couleur de rose" as far as the Russian prospects are concerned. According to these accounts the combat of Berdificlelf, Flock, and Pinak, are pure inventions. On the 2nd an engagement took place at Myszkow, in which the insurgents were dispersed at the first e mmon shot fired at them and they were pursued by the troops Another engagement is said to have taken to the neighbourhood of Karezow, but they were attacked by some Russian detachments and put to flight, with the loss of 100 killed. On the 100 killed, the hand were defeated near Szala, with the loss of 40 killed and wou ded. It must be remembered, however, that we have been reading this kind of thing regularly for the past six weeks, and the insurrection is still unsubdued at Petersburg. A very significant circumstance too, is, that the Warsaw official "Dziennik" has discontinued publishing its bulletins of engagements between the Russians and the insurgents.

A Berlin paper notices a report current at Warsaw that the Grand Duke Constantine is about to make his departure. His Imperial Highness would temporarily be replaced by Count de Berg. His Highness, on occasion would, however, be Prince Alexander of Hessen. Proclamations issued by the revolutionary committee have been published in the Russian Poland Gazette, exhorting the people not to allow themselves to be induced to rise in insurrection at the only mortal enemy of Poland is Russia.

The Turin journals publish two letters from Garibaldi, one addressed to the soldiers of the Russian army, and the other to Langiewicz. In the latter Garibaldi recommends the Polish General to extend the movement to the provinces of Austria. A telegram from Rome states that Menotti Garibaldi has passed through that city on his way to the Polish insurgents; but we have not seen as yet any confirmation of this announcement.

The Italian journals likewise publish the following from Louis Kossuth to the Poles. This manifesto has two objects:—The first, to prove that the Poles do not fight for "that accursed thing called liberty" and the second, to re establishment of independent Poland being the only question; and the second, to show that they ought to join on their guard against the attitude which Austria assumes in the neutrality which she affects to observe.

Letters from Athens of the 28th ult. state that a conspiracy has been discovered to replace the Bavarian dynasty in the throne. M. Bernau, the Bavarian Consul, was arrested, with several other persons. It could hardly, however, have been anything but a very insignificant affair.

The report of a fresh Ministerial crisis in Madrid is described as wholly unfounded.

A telegram from Ragusa mention. an attack made by the Turki h population upon a Christian village in Bosnia. The Christians had to fly to the mountains. The Turkish Government has, it is stated, sent troops to Bosnia to be taken to punish the disturbers of order.

A circular sent imminently and influentially signed has been issued, convening a private meeting, to be held to-day, to make arrangements for a public meeting in respect to the struggle in Poland. The meeting is to be held at the house of the Marquis Townshend, Park-lane. It is evident that in all classes in this country but one feeling in respect to Poland prevails. It is that of profound sympathy with the Poles.

[A Berlin correspondent sends us a lengthened description; of a scene in the Chamber of Deputies, as extraordinary as almost any which even revolutionary times have witnessed. In the debate on the Polish question, the Premier, Von Bismarck, denounced the leaders of the Liberal party in a manner so gratuitously insulting as to call forth the stern rebuke of the President. The Minister then appealed to authority of the President and the Chamber, declared that he was not a member of the House, that he did not acknowledge its authority over him, that the President had no right to call him to order, and that his only supe rior was the King. A scene of extraordinary violence and excitement ensued, which for the time suspended all business The President threatened to call in the aid of the Ministers, was defied, and the latter had at last—after though rudely and ungraciously—to abstain from his insulting style of address.]

An account which reaches us from two different sources, one of them Prussian represents Langiewicz to have been defeated very severely in an engagement with the Russian troops, and to have totally defeated them. The engagement took place on Sunday, the 5th Breslau account indicates that a second body of Russians proceeding to the aid of the former were surprised by Langiewicz in Warsaw during the disturbance, took place on Saturday evening. A body of ab out eighty persons who had assembled in one of the streets were fired upon by the troops and dispersed One man was killed. No further commotion, however took place. The people of Warsaw will not rise until they receive a summons from those whose authority they recognise. It is not unlikely that the disturbance of Saturday was one purposely provoked by the police.

FRANCE AND POLAND.

Paris, Mar h 5.

The France of this evening asserts that M. Billault will communicate to the Senate an important document addressed by the French Government within the last few days to the Cabinet of St Petersburg. "This document," continues La France,—

"Defines what the Emperor Napoleon expects the justice and generosity of the Czar for appeasing Poland by ample and serious guarantees in conformity with treaty rights and with the principles of humanity. The answer of the Czar is expected to day or to-morrow, and everything leads us to hope that it will be favourable to his subjects who have been expressed.

The debate in the Senate will probably take place on Tuesday next Prince Napoleon will speak on the occasion.

The Paps of this evening reproduces "under reserves" a rumour that an peace will very shortly be issued by the Emperor Napoleon, constituting the kin dom of Poland as it existed in 1830, with the Grand Duke Constantine as Sovereign.

A letter from Warsaw give the following account of the appearance of that city since the insurrection in Poland broke out—

"The cavalry occupy the squares and the artillery is posted at the different entrances. The public gardens are closed and filled with soldiers At eleven o'clock drums and trumpets are heard, and throughout the whole city there is nothing but the tramp of soldiers and the noise of horses—it is the hour for relieving guard. When that is over the night watch is set, and all is quiet. At three, as if by enchantment, Warsaw becomes animated for about an hour and the crowds pass and repass before the fortresses which contain the troops. At four o'clock everything is again quiet, and the persons in the street gradually disappear. At 8 o'clock lamps are lighted, and here and there lights may be seen at the windows. At nine all are extinguished, and Warsaw is dark and silent. At ten the drums and trumpets sound the signal for all fires to be put out, and those persons who may happen to be out of doors hasten home, happy if they can escape the guard. Cavalry and infantry patrol the streets, and woe be to any one they may meet. If a house is set on fire or a person dying, no one can dare go out to seek for assistance. If the sick die without medical help that is their fate."

THE PAPAL STATES.

Rome, Feb. 28.

Cardinal Antonelli has tendered his resignation; but the Pope has not yet come to any resolution upon the subject.

Cardinal Antonelli, on account of the arrest of Chevalier Fausti, his Attaché, has tendered his resignation to the Pope.

Monsignor de Merode is stated to have undermined the influence of Cardinal Antonelli with the Pope, because the Cardinal had opposed what he styles "Monsignor de Merode's Policy." Several other Cardinals took the same view, lamenting, al o, the want of action displayed by his Holiness as to the hostility of the English Government, together with his general lack of reserve.

His Holiness has not come to any resolution upon the subject.

THE BR'ZILIAN QUESION.

Mr Bramley-Moore had brought forward his motion respecting the dispute which had arisen between this country and Brazil. The question of which the member expressed regret at the misunderstanding that had arisen, and a hope that steps would be taken to terminate it in a manner consistent with the dignity of her Majesty's Government, and with the consideration due to the Government of Brazil. Mr Moore then went over the history of the quarrel, and strongly condemned the conduct of our consul, Mr Wetherell, and our minister Mr Christie, as unwarrantable in the facts of the case, and as having unjustifiably irritated the Brazilian Government. Before he sat down he would repeat a hope that the matter might be settled in a manner consistent with the dignity of her Majesty's Government, and with the consideration due to the Government of Brazil. Mr Moore then went over the history of the quarrel, and strongly condemned the conduct of our consul, Mr Wetherell, and our minister Mr Christie, as unwarrantable in the facts of the case, and as having unjustifiably irritated the Brazilian Government. Before he sat down he would repeat a hope that the matter might be settled in a manner consistent with the dignity of her Majesty's Government, and with the consideration due to the Government of Brazil.

Mr Layard defended the Government. On Mr Bentinck resuming his seat, a pause ensued, and the Speaker was about to put the question, when Mr Spooner rose and taunted the Ministers with their silence. The debate was continued by other members, among whom was Mr Cobden, who contended that the evidence before them, re-pecting the transactions in question, failed to afford any ground for the course taken by the Government in the case. He, however, recommended Mr Bramley-Moore to withdraw his resolution, and to rest content with the great preponderance of argument in support of it which the debate had elicited. This advice was accepted, and ultimately the motion was withdrawn.

OUR EUROPEAN LETTER-BAG.

COTTON SUPPLY ASSOCIATION.

Manchester, 6th March

Dear Sir,—I had this pleasure last on the 23rd ult. and am now in receipt of your favor of 27th, January.

IMMIGRATION.

Glasgow, 4th March 1863.

To the Editors —In the "Times" and "Daily Express," I have read there two remarks about English capitalists and emigrants; but the arguments you speak of never see these remarks; and even although they did, you seem to be ignorant of the efforts made by our own colonies to get emigrants from home; indeed, any useful tradesman can now get a free passage to any of our Southern colonies, where they can get high daily wages. Therefore, I am of opinion that a good steady well behaved man, would do well to leave this country for South America.

I wish you to send me the 'Standard' by every mail, and all the particulars you hold out to parties in this pla', to rettle down amongst you. I will pay your agent on this side any expense you may incur in acquiring the copies of the Government Land Regulations.

Send me all the information you can. I have the use of two papers in Glasgow; one as a Liberal, and in Edinburgh, to make known your views.

Yours truly,

CHAS. SCRIMGEOUR.

London, 8th March, 1863.

Dear Sir—Your constant advocacy of the cause of Buenos Ayres deserves a better reward and appreciation than I fear it is likely to get, if I may judge from the injudicious proceedings of those in power. It requires a strong head and a determined will to overcome local prejudices and animosities, so really fatal to what is the only proper one in some cases—Dunnigan inn and the cultivation of cotton are the two great things, next to immigration, required to render the Delta of the La Plata a second Mississippi, without its curse of slavery; and it is entirely the fault of Buenos Ayrean rulers if it be not realized. Europe is willing, and this country has abundant hands to spare (give away) but the head and brains to avail of the opportunity more of the latter than the former).

Yours truly,

H.

Liverpool, 8th March 1863.

To the Editor :—

I send you by this mail 2 papers which I hope you will receive safe and also price current for all sort of produce including River Plate, it is very much improved of late. The Brazil and River Plate mail arrived here on the 27th inst.

I think the Brazilian question is quite satisfied and I am glad of it.

There is a friend of mine thinking about going to Buenos Ayres and I told him to wait a little as I had a correspondent there and I would write and ask your opinion before I would make a bark, do you think it would be advisable for him to go. He is a young gen tleman 21 years of age and intends going out as clerk in a mercantile life, he has had upwards of 7 years experience.

There are great preparations making here for the marriage of H. R. H. Prince of Wales which I presume you know is on the 10th inst.

The Princess Alexandria arrived in England this day and got a very grand reception.

Hoping to hear from you by return of post.

I remain Gentlemen:

Yours Respectfully

AMERICAN WAR.

THE LATEST.

New York, Feb. 24.

Special; despatches received from Memphis dated the 21st inst. state that the Federal morale is very low and the position at Vicksburg on the 18th, and commenced the bombardment of the city. Three Confederate batteries responded to the fire, causing the Federal boats in a short time to change their position. The action was then renewed, but with what result is not yet known.

The Louisville (Kentucky) journals of the 21st inst. contain much excitement prevailed in that city in consequence of an existing rumour that The Confederate General Longstreet, at the head of 10,000 men, had entered the State, and was threatening Louisville, Lexington, Frankfort, and Danville.

The other war news is unimportant.

Telegraphic despatches from San Francisco, California, of the 21st inst. report that a dispute has arisen between the people of California and Nevada upon the question of boundary, both parties claiming jurisdiction over the land on the shores of Lake Valley. The service of a process of law by a Sheriff of California had met with armed resistance from the residents of the valley, and six of the Sheriff's men were wounded in the encounter that ensued. At latest accounts no adjustment of the difficulty had been arrived at, and both parties had sent for re nforcements.

News from Mazatlan to the 22nd ult. was received at S n Francisco, stating that 4,000 Mexican troops, under General La Vega had sailed from the port for Acapulco.

The Bill recently passed by the Senate authorizing the issue of letters of m rque and reprisal by the President has been referred to the Judiciary Committee of the House of Representatives At a meeting of the Chamber of Commerce on Saturday last a resolution was passed recommending that the bill be made a law

A Bill authorizing the suspension of the writ of habeas corpus was passed by the House of Representatives.

Intelligence is received from Havanah of a carnival at that port on the 17th inst., of the Confederate steamer Alice, from Mobile The Alice ran the blockade on the night of the 14th, and made the passage to Havanah without seeing a single cruiser.

The lark Golden Rule, which was captured by the Alabama on the 27th ult., was from Boston, and not from Philadelphia as previously reported.

Premium on gold continues to advance. The belief is an increase of confidence that there is a foreign war with France, a d possibly with France and England combined, are the cause of the rise. Yesterday it was 93 3-4 to 94 1-4; to-day 94 1-2 to 94 3-4. Silver sells at 163. Exchange is 1-7 to 1884.

Cotton, 9½ c per lb.

Provisions are dull and more active. Beef s sells gene ally have advanced 1 p ice

February 25th

The Richmond Examiner of the 21st contains a despatch from Port Hudson dated the 17th, announcing the arrival of the Federal ram Queen of the West on the Red River, Louisiana. The Queen had run the gauntlet of the Confederate fortifications on the banks of the river, and becoming disabled in her machinery by a Confederate shot, had fallen into the hands of her enemies and ever taken prisoners.

The latest telegraphic news from Louisville states that the feare t e Federals in Kentucky by the Confederates arose from the fact that about 30 Confederate cavalry entered Richmond, Ky., on the 18th inst., and proceed through to Winchester At Winchester a slight skirmish took place, after which the Confederates left, going in the direction of Mount Sterling.

A great Union meeting was held in Cincinnati on the 21st inst. at which resolutions were adopted pledging the Sate of Ohio to the vigorous prosecution of the war and the support of the Federal Administration until replaced by another.

The Senate had passed a bill permitting the Secretary to issue letters of marque. The object appears to have been to prep re against any foreign war in which the Federal States might become involved. If a proposal to limit the pow r to the duration of the civil war was negatived, and one senator declared that the passage of a foreign war was imminent. Another measure passed by the Senate is for a strong conscription, embracing all citizens between the ages of twenty and forty-five of age.

Both these bills, it was expected, would pass in the House of Representatives by large majorities But it is said the North has no intention either of ceasing in its efforts to crush the rebellion or of submitting any foreign interference. Such an intervention was imminent was generally believed, and gold had risen in consequence to 63 ¼ premium per cent.

The war news is not of much interest, but there are one or two items which deserve notice. General Hunter has been appointed to the command of the expedition at Hilton Head. He has always been a strong abolitionist, and his appointment therefore may be taken as another proof of the emancipation policy of the Federal Government. Another Federal gunboat had run the blockade at Vicksburg, and another expedition had left New Orleans for Bayou Teche, it was reported that the Confederates in Tennessee under General Johnston, were very much demoralized. No less than 3o0 of them are said to have been frozen to death in marching from Van Buren.

The Confederate story about the blockade of Charleston having been raised is explicitly denied by the commanders of the blockading squadron. They say they never quitted their usual cruising ground, and that no vessels crossed the bar after the Confederate steamers returned to Charleston. An attack on the federals on Roanoke Island was expected.

The resolution which had been brought into the Illinois Legislature for calling a peace convention at Louisville has been negatived. In the Confederate Congress a bid appears to have been made for the Western States. A resolution had been introduced to maintain the right of free navigation of the Mississippi for the citizens of the States upon its borders and upon the borders of its tributaries. The commissioners from Louisiana have taken their seats in the Federal House of Representatives.

EDITOR'S TABLE

General Mitre left yesterday, on board the admiral's ship, Guardia Nacional, for Rosario; he was accompanied by his suite, and, we believe, a few personal friends who will assist at the inauguration of the Gov. Don Rafael Gallego.

The Governor of Buenos Ayres was too much occupied with a law or fossil remains, and we know of no member of our provincial Cabinet, who thought fit to attend. General Urquiza, it seems, has not been invited, and Governors Posse and Colman will be the only provincial dignitaries present.

The Standard has always taken a peculiar interest in this great Argentine enterprise, and our associate editor left yesterday in the Pavon, to represent our foreign press and society at this memorable celebration. The Ministers of the English consul, the one of the committee, and some of our oldest English and Irish residents are the principal shareholders.

We have received several interesting letters from England, with intelligence of 16th the cotton-seed, per this mail.

Some parties are inquiring about Wright, Kelso, and Co's emigration line of ships, and their agent here: we believe there is no agent at present in Buenos Aires. The Regulus was to sail from Lpool on March 10th.

A wrestling match by four women is to take place in Solis theatre Montevideo.

A subscription has been got up by the residents of Quilmes to enlarge the church Government ought to support.

Monday the preparatory meeting of local chamber of Deputies to take place to examine the elections on Thursday, —to, Chamber of Senators. It is believed that Deputies will approve and Senators reject: as both Senators and Deputies have been elected from Buenos it will seem strange the one Chamber declares valid what the other rejects as fraudulent.

A great auction of fancy furniture, principally marbles, is to take place shortly at Mr. Billinghurst's.
